Elenora McNealy

Elenora McNealy was born March 20, 1931 in Tamo, Arkansas, to the union of Ira and Major McNealy. Elenora was the oldest daughter of eight children. She was lovingly called "Nora" by her family and friends. Elenora gave her life to Christ at an early age. She was a long time member of Pilgrim Rest Missionary Baptist Church, in Richmond, California. After her move to Vallejo, she joined Calvary Community Church under the leadership of Reverend Hanson Rogers.

Elenora moved to Richmond, California with her family in l943. Elenora took her role as "big sister" very seriously. She was very loving and kind to her family and would help anyone in need. She was especially loving to her siblings and her children. She was a woman of few words, but she had a gigantic generous heart. She always checked in with her family. We would look forward to her calls to see if all was well.

Elenora worked all of her life in various occupations. However, she found her calling when she began working in the Health Care field. For over twenty-five (25) years, she worked in various convalescent hospitals in Richmond and San Pablo, CA. She loved working with elderly patients bringing them tender care and compassion.

Elenora was a member of the Eastern Star. She was an excellent cook and baker. The entire family looked forward to holiday meals of ham, dressing, giblet gravy, delicious cakes and pies. She also loved doing puzzle books, watching a good western movie, and her gospel programs. She loved traveling with her family, fishing and she would never shy away from an evening at Cash Creek Casino. She was a devoted mother who spent hours with her children and family. Elenora and her grandson Eric Wallace had an extremely special bond, desired by many. They shared many hours together forging lasting memories. They were indeed, "two peas in a pod."

Elenora McNealy and John D. Harris had four children. Two of those children, affectionately known as "The Twins" Shirley Aguilar, Deloris Allyne; and Essie Ford preceded her in death. She leaves to celebrate her life: her daughter, Ireta Lynn Morris (Anthony), son, John Sylvester Harris; sisters Essie Smith and Halima Franklin; brothers Redell McNealy; Napoleon McNealy and Otis Smith (preceded her in death). She also leaves to celebrate her life, her special Aunt Marie Franklin; and her grandchildren: Antoine Moore (preceded in death), Antoinette Boyd, Angela Anderson, Jasmine Harris, Janae Morris, Jamar Morris, Eric Wallace and host of great grandchildren, nieces, nephews and cousins.

Smile Because She Lived

You can shed tears that she is gone

Or you can smile because she has lived

You can close your eyes and pray that she will come back

Or you can open your eyes and see all that she has left

Your heart can be empty because you can't see her

Or you can be full of the love that you shared

You can turn your back on tomorrow and live yesterday

Or you can be happy for tomorrow because of yesterday

You can remember her and only that she is gone

Or you can cherish her memory and let it live on

You can cry and close your mind,

be empty and turn your back

Or you can do what she would want:

Smile, open your eyes, love and go on.
